

project name Concession for Modernization, Extension and Operation of the International Airport “El Dorado” client Future Inc. “Nuevo Milenio S.A.”, Bogotá (Colombia)

location Bogotá (Colombia)

project duration begin january 2006
end june 2006

Bogotá’s “El Dorado” is South America’s third largest Airport. The consortium “Nuevo Milenio S.A.” was bidding for a 20-year concession to modernize, extend and to operate the airport.

sewage pumping station (t l), facultative sewage ponds (t r), fuel pit (d l), back up diesel generators (d r)

responsibilities

- technical bid management
- evaluation of existing utilities and services, of the required works and of existing airport master plan (due diligence)
- pre-preliminary design for modernization and extension works for: water works, sanitation, incl. sewage treatment plant, building services
- pricing of works and services

