

project name	Peri-Urban Enhancement Project
client	Municipalities Minga Guazú, Presidente Franco, Los Cedrales and Santa Rosa del Monday (Paraguay) Lions Club "John F. Kennedy", Lambaré (Paraguay)
location	Department of Alto Paraná (Paraguay)
project duration	begin	january 2004
	end	april 2004

For better local living conditions the Committee plans to improve the rural and peri-urban infrastructure:

- pavement of approx. 40 km of rural roads and vicinity streets
 - privatization of municipal slaughtery
 - implementation of a sanitary sewer system an sewage treatment plant for the municipality of Presidente Franco for 50.000 persons
- implementation of solid waste management example of proposed UASB reactor for Pres. Franco sewage treatment plant responsibilities

feasibility study:

- definition of target populations and assessment of needs
 - development of aims, tasks and key figures
 - conceptual design of the most needed and promising projects to reach the aims
- estimate of costs and risks for the program and the individual projects project schedule
 - definition of the organizational framework
- concept for PPP-model for Presidente Franco sewage treatment plant

